Excel to vCard converter 1.3.Lamb Of God - Mark Lamb interview 2014 The release date for the long awaited new album is on the horizon and Lamb Of God frontman Mark Lamb has been doing the rounds, this time with Newsround, to promote the LP. Asked about how the writing process has been he said: "I write songs as a painkiller. We use the songs like a morphine or something. It's just to lay down on your couch and kick back and relax. It's very therapeutic. And as a result I can get a lot more done because it's so therapeutic. You know, I'm not wired to work. When I write, I really go into my head and I play it like if I was a complete, manic sound master. It's really therapeutic for me. I haven't really written anything other than the music for this. I think there's going to be some lyrics. I think I'm gonna let the songs write themselves, I'll try to write and not try to put any structure to it, if I like something, that's what I'll do, like, 'Oh! It's the best thing I've ever heard. I'll put all that in it.'". He added: "We just put together this whole thing. It's not like we are going into any other way. We just started writing and basically we recorded the whole thing in one take. We just finished mixing, it's like a day-long-thing. We just did our best to make it the best thing that we possibly could. We can't write anything until we finish the album, but as soon as we finish the album, we can start writing again." The album is tentatively due for release in February 2014 and will be the first album to feature bassist Chris Adler, who had previously
